ASEP & SEP Executive Highlight

August 27 - 28, 2011

Sasin was founded on September 15, 1982 by Chulalongkorn University with the support and collaboration of Kellogg School of Management and the Wharton School. On December 5, 1987, the name "Sasin" was graciously bestowed by His Majesty King Bhumibol Adulyadej of Thailand on the occasion of His Majesty's 60th Birthday, and so, GIBA became Sasin.

Sasin's development has so far fulfilled the expectations of its founders whose vision was to establish "an educational institute of the highest order of excellence". Facilities include centrally air-conditioned study center, a special business and management library with over 6,000 volumes of textbooks and publications as well as over 80 titles of periodicals; access to Chulalongkorn University's highly advanced Computer Center and international electronic communication networks, more than 70 sets of personal computers, computer projection and audio-visual systems essential for effective learning. Academic programs currently offered are: Doctor of Philosophy in Business Administration (Ph.D.), Master of Business Administration (MBA), Master of Business Administration (Executive), Master of Science and Graduate Diploma in Human Resource Management, advanced management development programs, business and management seminars as well as business and management communication training.
